Corona del Sol Site-Based Council Student Member Application

The Corona del Sol Site Council serves as a liaison between school and community. It is a representative group of the school community that serves as a sounding board, problem-solving and decision-making group. Site Council oversees decisions that directly impact student learning, analyzes school safety issues, addresses concerns from the campus and its community, and allocates tax credit monies contributed to school's General Fund. Note: Student members are expected to continue their membership until graduation; a freshman representative will be elected at the beginning of the academic year.
